

Rachel Lilleyman – French horn

Rachel was the Solo Tenor Horn player with the Onchan Silver Band; and is a former member of the Manx Youth Orchestra also playing trumpet with the Isle of Man Wind Orchestra. Rachel began brass lessons with Jennifer Cook at Onchan Primary School until she moved to St. Ninian's High School where she continued to study brass with Steve Wortley and more recently Maurice Powell. She has gained Grade 5 certificates in Eb Tenor Horn and music theory. She is also a former recipient of Onchan Silver Band's Junior Player of the Year Award. Rachel completed her A levels in 2008. During her sixth form studies was short-listed as a finalist in the Barclays Student of the Year.

Also a keen sports person she is a former member of Vikings Hockey Club and Gyms Football Club. She also finds time to attend St. John Ambulance.

Rachel left the Island in 2009 to join the Army as a musician and upon completing her studies at the Royal Military School of Music, Kneller Hall she has recently been assigned to the Band of the Corps of Royal Engineers in Chatham, Kent.